Grosvenordale Company to Petition for Industrial Railroad Bights-Death of Charles B. Carpenter, 85-Ruth D. Donovan Dies at Worcester -L. L. Pease Comes From State of Washington on Big Apple Train.

The Grosvenordale company, operating the big mills in the Grosvenordales, will petition at the coming session of the general assembly for a right to construct and operate an industrial railroad in the town of Thompson, between the line of the New Haven road and their mills. The petition will set forth that the corporation desires the right to build such a road for its convenience and the economical transaction of its business. The petition will set forth that the road is needed for the transportation of its freight, espegally coal, and the road is needed for the transporta-tion of its freight, especally coal, and that it is proposed to operate the line by electricity, gasoline motor or other such power as may be found most de-sirable.

The major part of the line as contemplated will be laid and operated upon land of the Grosvenordale company, but a part of the line must be laid in the public highway at North Grosvenordale, the proposed railway entering upon the highway from the land of the company at a point just east of the easterly end of the bridge spanning the French river, and thence running substantially as follows:

Westerly on the southerly line of the said highway, crossing the bridge spanning the river (French) and the bridge spanning the river (French) and the bridge spanning the tail race; thence crossing the highway diagonally to its northerly side, at which point a branch track would enter upon land of the company and the main line of the road would then continue on land of the company.

In connection with the foregoing petition, it is announced that the matter will be before the legislature on January 4.
